

Examiner Recruitment transcript

Examiners and Moderators are central to the success of CCEA's examination system. We would like you to join us in this rewarding experience. Here are just a few of the benefits of working with CCEA.

Expand your network and share knowledge and resources.

Gain subject specialist insight.

Understand how learners respond to exam questions and learn what constitutes a quality answer.

Enhance your income with your services as an examiner and also contribute to your continuous professional development. When you join us you will receive full training including both online support and face to face feedback from your supervising examiner so there is always help at hand. Make a difference Examine with CCEA for more information or to apply please go to www.ccea.org.uk.