5 Source A: The Impact of Conflict on Syrian Society

The conflict began in Syria in 2011 and escalated into a civil war between those who support President Assad’s government and pro-democracy supporters who oppose it. A report by the World Bank Group (2017) highlights the impact of the conflict on Syrian society:

- in 2010 the population of Syria was around 20.7 million; by November 2016 it was 18.8 million
- the estimated number of deaths was around 400,000
- there were around 5.0 million Syrian refugees
- over half the population were forced to leave their homes
- about one third of Syria’s housing and half of its medical and education facilities have been destroyed
- there is a shortage of teachers, doctors and nurses
- youth unemployment was 78%
- it was estimated that about 6 in 10 Syrians are living in poverty
Read the information carefully in Source A to answer part (a) of the question below.

(a) Using the information in the Source and your own knowledge analyse the impact of conflict on Syrian society. [6 marks]
