

Rewarding Learning

General Certificate of Secondary Education
November 2021

GCSE English Language/English

Tasks for Speaking and Listening Moderation

[GEN21]

- 1 Young people today are more concerned about their rights than their responsibilities. Does your group agree?
- 2 Your school/college currently has a disused space (indoor or outdoor) and the following proposals have been made for its use. You should consider the merits and demerits of each proposal and come to a final decision.
 - a gallery area for students' creative work
 - a wellness garden
 - a chill out area
 - a hub for students' business ideas.
- 3 In today's world coming first is all that matters. What does your group think?
- 4 If we don't respect other living creatures we brutalise ourselves. Is this a fair comment? You should consider:
 - factory farming
 - blood sports
 - use of animals for fashion and medical products
 - anything else you think is relevant.
- 5 It has been said that fashion is just a commercial racket. Is there anything more to fashion than just money-making? Your group has met to discuss this and should represent the views of the following:
 - a human rights campaigner
 - a fashion influencer/blogger
 - an owner of a fashion shop
 - a charity shop worker
 - a parent of teenage children
 - a fashion designer.