

GCSE Religious Studies Specification Addendum

Exceptional Assessment Adaptations (for 2021–2022)

This addendum should be used in conjunction with the current specification

The table below shows the units available for Summer 2022 cash in and details where applicable:

- the unit eligible for omission; and
- any temporary adaptations that have been made due to public health restrictions.

Please note: This applies only to candidates who started their GCSE course in September 2020 and are cashing-in at qualification level in Summer 2022

See Section 1.5 for the prohibited unit combinations.

Full Course

- For those students who started their GCSE course in September 2020 and are due to cash in the full GCSE in Summer 2022 they will be required to enter for either:
 - Two external examination units or
 - One external examination unit and the controlled assessment task for their second chosen unit
- They will be unable to sit the two examination units and a controlled assessment task.
- In both cases the full specification content should still be delivered.

Short Course

Students who cashed in for the GCSE short course in Summer 2021 and wish to enter for the GCSE full course in Summer 2022 must sit one examination unit.

For candidates commencing their GCSE course in September 2021, it is recommended that, as far as possible, the units are delivered in numerical order in case of any further disruption to the academic year.
