Occupational Studies Registrations

Your centre has been identified as an Administration Centre for online occupational studies registrations and you are responsible for:

- ✓ Online Identification of Teaching centre(s)
- ✓ Online Registration of units for January assessment
- ✓ Online Registration of units for March Entry Level
- ✓ Online Registration of units for Summer assessment
- ✓ Online Registration of units taught In-House

Online Occupational Studies Registrations must be completed every year, before submission of actual entries and in January, March and Summer, even if you have entries in all seasons.

Actual Entries are candidate and unit details submitted via A2c to CCEA (or manual entry form for centres not supported by C2k).

N.B Teaching centres only have access to the reports tab.

Actual Entries	January Assessment	March Entry Level Assessment	Summer Assessment
Closing Dates for Entry	21st October	31st January	21st February

Remember to click on the Send Registration button each time. Ensure you include units taught In-House.

 Please note a unit can only be registered to one teaching centre prior to actual entries being submitted.

Candidate Registrations

Where a centre has submitted an entry prior to registering the unit the centre will be automatically directed to the Candidate Registrations Tab.

The Component, Teaching Centre and all candidates are selected. You are only required to Click on the activated “Register Candidate” button.

Multiple Teaching Centres for Same Unit

If you have more than one teaching centre for a specific unit, register the unit initially to one centre only.

Once the entry has been submitted and processed by CCEA you must register the unit again and select the second teaching centre.

You will be automatically redirected to the Candidate Registration Screen.

Deselect any candidate that is not to be moved to the second teaching centre by clicking on the tick box and then click Register Candidates.

The screenshot shows the 'Occupational Studies' interface with the 'Candidate Registrations' tab selected. A blue box highlights the 'Register Candidates' button. Below the button, there is a table for 'Current Candidate Registrations for 2016 / Spring' with columns for Candidate No., Candidate Name, Teaching Centre, Teaching Centre Name, and a tick box. The table currently shows 'There are no Candidate Registrations'.

Reports

You can view, print and save reports of the units you have registered and the candidates you have entered. You can select the Entire Season, Component, Centre or Candidate. You can email reports to your teaching centre for verification.

You can produce reports by Admin Centre or Teaching Centre.

N.B Teaching centres only have access to the reports tab.

The screenshot shows a web application interface for 'Occupational Studies'. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following elements: 'Welcome, 71145 (71145)', 'Spring / 2016', 'Change Password', and 'Sign out'. Below this is a header with the 'Occupational Studies' title and the 'cea' logo with the tagline 'Rewarding Learning'. A secondary navigation bar contains tabs for 'Year and Season', 'Centres', 'Centre Registrations', 'Candidate Registrations', and 'Reports', with 'Reports' being the active tab. The main content area is titled 'Reports' and contains an information message: 'You can view, print and save reports of registrations and candidate entries. Please make selections below before generating a report'. Below the message is a 'List of Reports' section with a dropdown menu set to 'Teaching Centre Registrations' and four radio button options: 'Entire Season', 'Component', 'Centre', and 'Candidate'. A 'Create Report' button is located at the bottom of this section. The footer of the page includes 'Council for Curriculum, Examination and Assessment' on the left and '© 2015 All Rights Reserved' on the right.

FAQ

Question	Answer
Why is it important to complete registrations for Occupational Studies?	Most Occupational Studies units are taught off-site. Therefore, for administration purposes it is imperative CCEA know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What centre the candidates are attending to ensure the correct candidate information appears on the eCandidate Record Sheets • Where to collect portfolios • Where/who to contact with queries Failure to get this right could incur additional costs and compromise candidate results.
Why do I need to register units?	Registration of units' shows where the units are being taught so that the eCandidate Record Sheets will appear correctly and the portfolios are collected from the correct location.
Why do I need to register my candidates? I have already entered them.	Candidates do not need to be registered. It is units which need to be registered which are then linked to the entries. This is to show where the units and candidates are being taught so the correct information is contained on the eCandidate Record Sheets.
I have received an email about registering units. What does that mean?	CCEA have received an entry for a unit which has not been registered. Units need to be registered to show where they are being taught to enable the teaching centre to complete the eCandidate Record Sheets.
I forgot to register units and have put on the entries. Is it too late to register the units?	No. Please register the units as soon as possible. However if you have already received your sampling instructions please contact the Moderation & Assessment Team on 028 9026 1200 ext. 2374.
Our students are taught at their own school, do we still need to register the unit(s)?	Yes. You must register your centre as the Teaching centre.
Why is there more than one code for some units?	Some units are available within more than one pathway to give greater flexibility. For example, it would be possible to choose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carpentry & Joinery with Digital Music to achieve a qualification in Technology & Innovation or • Carpentry & Joinery with Plumbing to achieve a qualification in Construction.

Question	Answer
Who is responsible for ensuring registrations and entries are correct?	It is the responsibility of the administration centre to ensure registrations and entries are completed correctly. There should be regular contact with the teaching centre to ensure that the units entered by candidates are up to date. To assist in this process both the administration centre and teaching centre can use the online registration system to access registration and entry reports. Teaching centres should check each unit on the eCandidate Record Sheets to ensure they can see all the candidates they are teaching. If there are any discrepancies, please contact the administration centre.
