

Here is just some of the support for Assessment for Learning that you can find on the CCEA website.

Foundation Stage

Assessment and Reporting at Foundation Stage

Key Stage 1 and 2

Assessment for Learning for Key Stages 1 & 2

This resource explains what Assessment for Learning is and introduces practical strategies to plan for and promote it in the classroom.

All

Assessment for Learning – A Practical Guide

This guide for teachers shows how assessment can be used to promote learning, develop understanding and enhance practice.

Assessment

The Assessment in Northern Ireland video on this page explains how assessment supports the tracking of learners' progress and aligns with the Northern Ireland Curriculum.

The Big Picture of Assessment and Reporting

This resource is an at-a-glance guide to assessment and reporting.

Special Educational Needs \(SEN\) & Inclusion – Assessment

This page features a range of dedicated assessment guidance and support to meet the diverse needs of learners with SEN.

Gaeleideachas \(Irish Medium\) – Measúnú agus Tuairisciú

This page features a range of dedicated guidance and support for assessment in Irish-medium schools and units.

Further Reading

Dylan Wiliam – Assessment for Learning: why, what and how

YouTube – Dylan Wiliam: What do we mean by Assessment for Learning?

Assessment Reform Group – Assessment for Learning: 10 Principles

Education Endowment Foundation – Teaching and Learning Toolkit

Centre for Educational Research and Innovation – Assessment for Learning: Formative Assessment

Other Supporting Resources

Department of Education – Teaching professional learning strategy \(Learning Leaders\)

Education and Training Inspectorate – The Inspection and Self-Evaluation Framework \(ISEF\)