

POST-PRIMARY LINKS

DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE AND ABUSE

Parents/Carers may find these useful

GUIDANCE

Gov.uk – Domestic abuse: how to get help

This page features information on recognising domestic abuse in a relationship and helping a friend if they're being abused.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Barnardo's – Sexual Exploitation: Sex, Secrets and Lies

Aimed at young people, their families and carers, this guide covers topics like tricks used by abusers and the effects of abuse.

Brook – Abuse/Exploitation

Featuring facts and scenarios, this page explains the different forms of abuse and exploitation.

Directory and Book Services – Support for Those Concerned with Abuse & Sexual Violence

This website features a National Resource Directory, including Northern Ireland services that specialise in areas of abuse and sexual violence, and information sheets that address the main issues involved.

Disrespect NoBody – What is Relationship Abuse?

This page features an explanation of relationship abuse, signs to look out for and real stories from survivors of relationship abuse.

FPA – Is this love?

This leaflet, which costs £5.00 for a pack of 50, can help young people to identify and protect themselves against abusive behaviour.

Live Fear Free – Domestic Abuse and Sexual Violence

This page defines domestic abuse and sexual violence and includes links to frequently asked questions.

NSPCC – Domestic Abuse

Featuring facts and statistics, this page explains the types of domestic abuse, who it affects and its signs and indicators.

Place2B – Domestic violence and the impact on children

Featuring advice for teachers and school staff on supporting pupils affected by domestic violence, this page includes information on possible indicators and methods of support.

Together Against Domestic Abuse

This website features e-books for schools and young people that cover topics like how schools can prevent domestic violence and abuse.

POST-PRIMARY LINKS DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE AND ABUSE

Parents/Carers may find these useful

KEY STAGE 3 AND KEY STAGE 4 TEACHING RESOURCES

Tes - Domestic Violence Resources

Including a presentation and posters, these resources can help pupils to learn about the different types of relationship abuse.

The Hideout - Other Education Resources

Created by Women's Aid, this website features links to resources like Silence is Not Always Golden: Tackling Domestic Violence from the National Union of Teachers.

Youth and Policing Education Hub - Domestic Abuse

Aimed at encouraging young people to recognise the signs of domestic abuse, this resource can help them to explore and challenge the myths that perpetuate domestic abuse.

SUPPORT ORGANISATIONS

Childline

Available to anyone under 19 in the UK, Childline offers help with any issue and can be contacted over the phone on 0800 1111, by email or through the online 1-2-1 counsellor chat.

National Association for People Abused in Childhood - Booklets

Aimed at survivors of domestic abuse, these booklets cover topics like abuse is always a choice and moving on.

Nexus NI - Getting Help

This organisation offers services and support to people who have been affected by sexual violence.

Relate Northern Ireland - Domestic Violence and Abuse Services

This page details how Relate can help individuals, couples or families experiencing violence or abuse in their relationships.

Women's Aid Federation Northern Ireland

This voluntary organisation offers a range of specialist services to women, children and young people who have experienced domestic violence, such as a 24 hour domestic and sexual violence helpline.