

Sixties Song

(Search online for the tune: My Corner Master's Store)

Verse 1

There were the first tapes,
We sometimes call cassettes
In the sixties, in the sixties
There were the first tapes,
We sometimes call cassettes
In the 1960s years

Sensory Activities

Give your learners the large cut-outs of the numbers 1960 to feel and explore.

Chorus

*It was such a great era for mankind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind!*

Sensory Activities

Show your learners a silhouette of James Bond. If possible, place it on a light box for effect.

Verse 2

There were vinyl records,
which spun round and round
In the sixties, in the sixties
There were vinyl records, which spun round and round
In the 1960s years

Sensory Activities

Give your learners the vinyl records to look at, feel and listen to.

Create a mobile using old records and hang this from the ceiling (ensure that your learners can see or feel it).

Chorus

*It was such a great era for mankind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind!*

Sensory Activities

Show your learners a silhouette of James Bond. If possible place it on a light box for effect.

Verse 3

There were lasers, lasers of all shapes and sizes
In the sixties, in the sixties
There were lasers, lasers of all shapes and sizes
In the 1960s years

Sensory Activities

Give your learners a range of Star Wars-type light sabres.

Chorus

*It was such a great era for mankind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind!*

Sensory Activities

Show your learners a silhouette of James Bond. If possible, place it on a light box for effect.

Verse 4

Then came The Beatles,
Beatles from the town of Liverpool
In the sixties, in the sixties
Then came The Beatles
Beatles from the town of Liverpool
In the 1960s years

Sensory Activities

Play the Yellow Submarine song by The Beatles. Encourage each learner to sit inside one of the submarines they have made (in suitable seating).

Chorus

*It was such a great era for mankind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind!*

Sensory Activities

Show your learners a silhouette of James Bond. If possible place it on a light box for effect.

Verse 5

Then Star Trek made it onto our TVs
In the sixties, in the sixties
Then Star trek made it onto our TVs
In the 1960s years

Sensory Activities

Turn off the lights. Ask staff to position an umbrella with battery-operated lights attached above your learners so they can experience a Star Trek spaceship coming down to land on their knees.

Chorus

*It was such a great era for mankind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind
We met James Bond, if you don't mind!*

Sensory Activities

Show your learners a silhouette of James Bond. If possible, place it on a light box for effect.
