

Reasons for Moving to the Towns (Cards)

All my friends are moving to town so I will go too.

New mills are opening and there is plenty of work which is well paid.

In the towns there will be more freedom to do things such as play in the streets.

There is no future for the children in the village. We can't afford to pay the rent and feed them.

The girls will get jobs in the factory or will go into service in the mill owner's house.

Mother will be able to take in washing from the mill owner.

There will be more jobs for the children to earn money for the family.

John's brother moved to the town three years ago and is doing well.

The mill owner will provide us with a decent house.

The boys will be able to work in the factories and still go to school.
