

Resource 4.3

Tally Chart

EU4U?

Statement	Good for Northern Ireland	Bad for Northern Ireland	Can't decide
The European Union has committed millions of pounds each year to The International Fund for Ireland to promote peace-building and reconciliation in Ireland.
As a result of EU laws, many councils in Northern Ireland only collect household waste every two weeks.
All ingredients must be listed on items of food sold in shops in Northern Ireland.
Labels on food sold in shops in Northern Ireland must contain a warning if the product contains any allergens, such as nuts.
By the end of 2012, the old incandescent light bulbs used across Northern Ireland will have been replaced by better alternatives that last longer and use less power.
Broken and unused electrical items (including fridges, computers, toasters, kettles, florescent light tubes, etc.) must be taken to council recycling centres across Northern Ireland.
Northern Ireland's citizens must provide evidence of identity and address when opening a bank account.
Northern Ireland's fishermen sometimes have to throw huge quantities of dead fish back into the sea.

Resource 4.3

Tally Chart

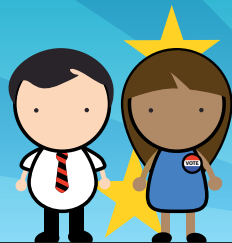

EU4U?

Statement	Good for Northern Ireland	Bad for Northern Ireland	Can't decide
It now costs less for Northern Ireland's citizens to text and send or receive calls on their mobile phones when travelling in another EU country.
Pesticides used by Northern Ireland's farmers to boost crops will not harm us, wildlife or the environment.
Websites are monitored to ensure they do not give Northern Ireland's citizens misleading information about their products and costs.
As EU citizens, Northern Ireland's citizens can work in any other EU country.
As EU citizens, students from Northern Ireland can study at university in any EU country under the same conditions as nationals.
As EU citizens, Northern Ireland's citizens can live in any other EU country.
Northern Ireland's schools can get funding to get involved in projects with other schools across Europe.
As a result of being a member of the EU, Northern Ireland's citizens are now more tolerant of other nationalities.
People in Northern Ireland now have a wider choice of goods and services thanks to EU legislation.

Resource 4.3

Tally Chart

EU4U?

Statement	Good for Northern Ireland	Bad for Northern Ireland	Can't decide
Through being a member of the European Union, Northern Ireland's businesses have access to a market of almost 500 million consumers.
EU regional policy has contributed significantly to economic and social development in Northern Ireland.
The European Union's Structural Funds have contributed to Northern Ireland's progress towards a peaceful and stable society.			