

Resource 3 (Activity 3) Attitudes To Laws

Law (these may not be existing laws)	Should always obey this law	Should always obey this law except when there is a moral reason for not doing so	Should always obey this law except when you think you can get away with breaking it	You should do what you want and not worry about this law
Drinking alcohol is banned in parks and other outdoor public places.
It is illegal to copy music and films without permission.
It is illegal to smoke in enclosed public places.
It is illegal to sell alcohol to children under 18.
You cannot buy butane gas refills until you are 18.
Cannabis is an illegal drug.
It is illegal to have a TV without a licence.
It is illegal to claim financial support payments from the Government if you are working (doing the double).
Prostitution is illegal. You can only park in specific designated areas.
It is illegal to drive over the designated speed limit.

For each law discuss:

1. How did you decide whether you would obey this law or not?
2. Which morals, values and beliefs influence your opinion about this law?
3. Who benefits from adopting your attitude?
4. Who suffers as a consequence of adopting your attitude?
