

Resource 7a (Activity 4)

Relationships - Family A

Mother

You are tired of constantly tidying up after your children; you feel they should pull their weight more.

Father

You are tired of asking your children to do their share of the family chores.

Daughter

You feel you don't have enough time to do any chores because you have too much homework.

Son

You feel guilty that you don't help out more at home.

Resource 7b (Activity 4)

Relationships - Family B

Mother

You don't agree with your daughter going off on a camping holiday with her friend; she's only twelve, too young to be trusted.

Father

You have forbidden your daughter to go camping with her friends. At twelve years of age, she's far too young.

Daughter (aged 12)

You want to go away with your friends for a camping weekend.

Son

You were never allowed to go away with your friends for a camping weekend.

Resource 7c (Activity 4)

Relationships - Family C

Mother

You are willing to drive your son to basketball matches at weekends if he spends more time with his younger sister when you need a break.

Father

You work most weekends.

Daughter

You are far too young to understand what is going on.

Son

You are a basketball fanatic. Your team is doing well in the top league.
