

Resource 8a (Activity 5) Friendships

Cut out the individual cards and divide into two bundles - one bundle for things that help a friendship and a second bundle for things that hinder a friendship.

having fun time together	being a good listener	standing up for someone funny	understanding	helping not keeping a promise	being a 'know it all'	having other friends dominating conversation	complaining	moving to another town

Resource 8b (Activity 5) Friendships moving to another class	trusting	having similar interests supporting a different team	not getting in touch	putting the other person first being very successful	developing different interests	making time not being loyal	being compassionate	forgetting important events

Resource 8c (Activity 5) Friendships

Use the blank cards provided to add your own suggestions about things that help and hinder friendships. (There should be at least six blank cards per group, three marked 'things that help' and three marked 'things that hinder').

things that help	things that help	things that help
things that hinder	things that hinder	things that hinder
things that help	things that help	things that help
