

The WOW Factor Year 11

Unit 4- Who Wants to be an Entrepreneur?

About.com

www.entrepreneurs.about.com

The US based site includes topics to address the question, 'are entrepreneurs born or developed?' The site also contains information on entrepreneurs in action and the entrepreneurial lifestyle

AllTheTests

www.allthetests.com

A range of online tests and quizzes relating to careers and jobs; the search facility can be used to access entrepreneur tests

Department of Enterprise Trade and Investment

www.detni.gov.uk

Case studies illustrating the social economy in Northern Ireland are available in 'social economy case studies' section

Enterprise Northern Ireland

www.enterpriseni.com

Enterprise Northern Ireland gives advice on business start-up and gives good coverage of possible sources of support for new businesses

Invest Northern Ireland

www.investni.com

Invest Northern Ireland provide a useful overview of Northern Ireland business activity, gives information on business start-ups and coverage of different categories of entrepreneurs such as social, female and young entrepreneurs

Management and Leadership Network

www.mln.org.uk

Many topics are covered by the Management and Leadership Network including, 'Training and Development Needs of Female Business Owners'

NI Business Info.

www.nibusinessinfo.com

Practical advice on areas including 'exploiting your ideas' and 'how to start-up a new business'

Princes Trust

www.princes-trust.org.uk

The Princes Trust encourages young people to 'get out of your box'. The web site contains useful material aimed specifically at the 13+ age group covering issues such as boosting business ideas, business start-ups and community projects

Social Economy Network

www.socialeconomynetwork.org

A local focus for social enterprise can be found on this website which lists many local initiatives and has plenty of text based resources discussing the role of the social economy

Social Enterprise Coalition www.socialenterprise.org.uk

UK case studies and information on the nature of social enterprise

Shell LiveWire

www.shell-livewire.org

Information on entrepreneurial qualities and contains some case studies

UnLtd

<http://www.unltd.org.uk/>

A charitable organisation set up to promote social entrepreneurship.