

The WOW Factor Year 8

Unit 3- My Town

<http://en.wikipedia.org>

Wikipedia is an online encyclopaedia which can provide the following information on a town – history, demography, education, transport, employment and useful links.

www.detini.gov.uk

The website of the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment provides economic and labour market statistics in Northern Ireland.

www.nicensus2001.gov.uk

This website provides information on the Northern Ireland Census. It gives statistics on population, employment and housing for all areas in Northern Ireland. These can be broken down by town, wards and postcodes.

www.nidex.com/media.htm

Provides a link to local newspaper's websites which may provide information on jobs etc in local towns and villages.

www.northernirelandchamber.com

Provides an online members' directory and provides local business information and useful links.

www.yell.com

Provides contact information on businesses, schools, hospitals etc in all areas in Northern Ireland. An online search of a type of business or organisation will reveal how many there are listed in the given area.