

The WOW Factor Year 8

Unit 5- Challenges

www.cvni.org

This is the website of the Conservation Volunteers Northern Ireland and it may be a useful source of information for Theme 3 – Greenland’s Project

www.lego.com

Lego or other toy websites might provide information which could be used in Theme 4 – Smart Toys Project.

www.ni-environment.gov.uk

The Northern Ireland Environment Agency provides information and resources about protecting the environment. It may be a useful source of information for Theme 3 – Greenland’s Project

www.improveltd.co.uk and www.fdtc.co.uk

Improve Ltd is the Sector Skills Council for the Food and Drink Manufacturing Industry in the UK and the Food & Drink Training Council (FDTC) is the representative body for NI. Their websites may provide information which might be useful Theme 5 – Sam’s Snacks

www.semta.org.uk

SEMTA is the sector skills council for Science, Engineering, Manufacturing and Technology and may and it may provide useful information which could be used in Theme 4 – Smart Toys Project

www.skillset.org and www.northernirelandscreen.co.uk

The websites of the UK creative media industries and NI Film & Television Commission (NIFTC) may provide useful information which could be used in Theme 1 – News Line

www.skillsmartretail.com and www.wrtc.co.uk

The Sector Skills Council for Retail and the Wholesale & Retail Training Council (WRTC) may provide useful information which could be used in Theme 2 – Shop Here

www.volunteering-ni.org

This the website of the Volunteer Development Agency and it may be a useful source of information for Theme 3 – Greenland’s Project